

Implant Reconstruction

Last Updated Friday, 23 March 2007

Implant Reconstruction with Sinus Lifts and Porcelain Crowns

This is a major reconstruction completed recently (2006). It involves multiple implant placements in both the upper and lower arches and sinus lifts. The implants were sequenced into position over a year and a half so that the patient never had to wear a complete denture. The photos at the left depict the pre-operative situation.