

Lebanon Crisis, World Health Organization Update

The conflict across the border between Lebanon and Israel continues, threatening people's health in the region. The affected population, including 680 000 in Lebanon and 220 000 in Syria, Jordan, Cyprus, and the Gulf area, needs urgent support to access safe drinking water, health care, vaccines and life-saving medications. [click link for full article]

The conflict across the border between Lebanon and Israel continues, threatening people's health in the region. The affected population, including 680 000 in Lebanon and 220 000 in Syria, Jordan, Cyprus, and the Gulf area, needs urgent support to access safe drinking water, health care, vaccines and life-saving medications. [click link for full article]

Read more at: <http://www.medicalnewstoday.com/medicalnews.php?newsid=48905&nfid=rssfeeds>.