

ZAAG Implant Attachments

Last Updated Sunday, 20 August 2006

ZAAG Implant Attachments

The ZAAG attachment is a new, improved version of the Zest Anchor. Implant abutments are available for most systems and they are packaged in convenient kit form. The treatment on these pages involves the placement of four implants in the anterior mandible and the use of four ZAAG implant abutments as retentive elements.