

Implant Crown and Bridge Implants

Last Updated Saturday, 26 August 2006

Implant Crown and Bridge Restorations

Three months after implant placement, second stage surgery was accomplished. The anterior implant, which was placed directly in the bicuspid socket was slightly to the labial and I had to move some of the soft tissue around to compensate for the misplaced vertical releasing incision. The radiograph shows the insertion of the standard trans-mucosal abutments. Note that the two distal abutments are not completely seated at this point.