

A Few Teeth

Last Updated Thursday, 14 September 2006

Partially
Edentulous Patients

The restorations in this category are for patients who are missing some teeth in one or both jaws. There is basically only one type of restoration in this category although it may be handled in several different fashions. The restoration here is called a "crown and bridge" restoration where the crowns and bridges are either cemented onto the implants or screwed into place. We will show you several variations and examples of each...SRD